Eddie Burns Sr. Officially Takes Office

Eddie Burns Sr. will take the Oath of Office as the new Dallas Fire Chief on April 21, 2006 at 10:00 A.M. Over the last seven months Dallas City Officials have conducted a nationwide search to find the next leader of the Dallas Fire-Rescue Department.

Chief Burns is charged with leading the Dallas Fire-Rescue Department into the future, as one of the premier fire service organizations in the nation.

We are encouraging members of the local media to join us as we celebrate the installation of our new Fire Chief.

A reception will take place in the Flag Room immediately following the installation service.
